IGW - Imperium Galactic War

Imperium: Galactic War is a PVP centric MMORTS for players who wish to take part in a competitive gameplay experience. The game premise is simple; players create a character, upgrade a starbase and attack and defend against other players and computer generated opponents that enter their sector. Players progress by improving their starbase, gaining resources by attacking NPCs and other enemy players. As players gain in power, enemy players look to slow or halt their progress for the sake of their own factions.

Build an Empire

Start out with a small starbase and build it into a fearsome fortress

Command Interstellar Fleets

Customize fleets of starships catered to your play style and tactics

Expand your influence

Conquer Center Space and provide bonuses for your entire faction

Protect what is yours

Send your fleets to battle to protect your belongings

Take what isn't

This is war! Conquer the weak and take their stuff!
